The Basics of Forex Trading: II

Introduction As we pointed out in the last post, the Forex market offers abundant opportunities for retail traders. At 1000pip Builder, we are a living testament to that. With just 2 to 7 trades per day and by concentrating on the major currency pairs, we aim for 350 pips a month. We wish that every [...]

The Basics of Forex Trading: I

Introduction You have been introduced to the Forex market in our last blog post. Now, you know how huge it is and what is traded. I expect that you are already excited about the prospect it holds. Indeed, the Forex market is full of opportunities for virtually everyone, irrespective of background. However, the

Forex 101

What is Forex? Foreign exchange trading, or Forex trading for short, is the buying and selling of currencies. This all happens in the global Forex market which is the largest of its kind in the world, with a turnover of over $5 trillion every day. Beyond the retail trading of currencies, Forex trading is an [...]

How to Approach the Forex Market

Introduction The Forex market can be tricky. At first, you might think you've really got it only for a chain of losing trades to prove you wrong. Hence, it is no surprise that so many lose. Apart from the lack of understanding of its basics,

The Basics of Forex Trading: III

Introduction We have covered a number of key topics already in our blog but there probably still more questions you want to ask. Like, how do Forex brokers make money, or are they offering a free service? You may also want to know more about price, the bid and ask price, and how your profits [...]

Using Technical Analysis to Approach the Forex Market I

From our previous blog posts, you should not be able to approach the Forex Market using fundamental analysis. However, that is not enough. In fact, many traders consider fundamental analysis to be a little bit dreary. So, they do not use it. Instead, they adhere strictly to Technical Analysis in approaching the market and making [...]

Using Fundamental Analysis to Approach the Forex Market II

Introduction Balance of Trade and Political Stability are two other critical factors you should watch. The two also determine the extent to which currencies are supplied and demanded, and subsequently their relative values. Here, we will be discussing them and how you can be getting reliable information on all of them. Balance of Trade The [...]

Using Fundamental Analysis to Approach the Forex Market I

In our previous post, we discussed how you can approach the Forex market. There, we introduced Fundamental Forex Analysis and Technical Forex Analysis. We understand that your interest has already been piqued. As a result, here, we will be delving into Fundamental Analysis and how you can use it to approach the Forex Market. After [...]

Using Technical Analysis to Approach the Forex Market IV (Triple Candlestick Patterns)

In our previous post in which we discussed Dual Candlestick Patterns, we introduced the concept of market momentum. We noted how it is the primary factor that determines if and when the market will continue on its chosen course or reverse from it. Knowing the momentum of the market, at any time, is like knowing [...]

Using Technical Analysis to Approach the Forex Market III (Dual Candlestick Patterns)

Single candlestick patterns are useful, and it may appear that it is possible to detect potential trend reversals with a single candle stick. However, in reality the confirmation of trend reversals requires more validation beyond the single candlestick patterns. Single candlestick patterns do present many great opportunities but sometimes they are not the most effective [...]

Using Technical Analysis to Approach the Forex Market II

In our previous post, we discussed basic candlestick patterns. By now, you should be able to identify them, the Spinning Tops, Marubozu, and Doji if you see them in charts. Beyond identification, you should also be able to discern what each means so that you can take smart decisions with them in the course of [...]

What Can 1000Pip Builder Do for Me?

Pip means Percentage In points, and according to ForexTrainingGroup, is the minimum price increment for a currency pair. This service claims to help you get a growth of 600 to 1000 pips.

Yes, this sounds way too good to be true. But is it?

After all, Bob is an expert. And 1000Pip Builder does boast signals that are verified and profitable for their customers.

The key thing to remember here is that Forex is a high risk, high reward investment. So, if you are asking, "Am I going to get a signal that will help me profit?" I cannot say for sure if you will.

You are never guaranteed a return on your investment. The best I can do is show you how this program works, tell you about my personal experience, and advise you to check it all out for yourself.

Services 1000Pip Builder Offers

Here's how those great signals work.

Bob's program sends signals to you, the investor/subscriber, with pertinent trade information. The goal is that you earn a profit and of course, stick with the program.

Before the signals are transmitted, one of Bob's analysts double-checks the data put forth and ensures the signal is correct and viable. They also measure any risks that are related to trading to provide the most favorable outcome to the investor.

That means, if you feel a trade is too risky, you can avoid it altogether.

This way, investors working with 1000Pip Builder always get the best of the best when it comes to the Forex markets.

But there is really no reason to worry when it comes to using 1000Pip Builder. After all, results are verified by MyFxBook. And don't worry about Forex markets only being open during specific windows during the day.

The signals Bob sends can be received via text or email, so you don't have to wait around all day for info on stop loss, entry price, and take profit numbers.

My Personal Story

Here is how I fared using this program. Remember, my story is going to be different than yours.

I personally am glad to have found Bob and the rest of the gang at 1000 Pips. I have experienced both good and bad market days, but the information I have learned has meant more to me than I expected.

Bob has sent me and other investors lots of good advice and helped me out with trading decisions. He offers encouragement on the down days and reminds me that emotion should not affect trade.

My signals have been sent for over half a year now. I made some pretty good gains in my second month, and Bob looked at my account and advised me to lower the amount of risk I was using. Truth be told, I had no idea I was doing anything wrong, but Bob's advice was a good thing for my account.

That's not to say I haven't had my share of down days. The markets took a dip in October, but I kept the course and feel good about what I am doing now.
